I like these products, but i think that Jimenez pushed too much his hand, in presenting these product. I guess if he is still happy of this choice, after the divorce happened in november 2013 of Jimenez and AK Interactive (and this can be a lesson for Mig: less indirect advertising, more contents).

Accordingly, he may have some, or no control over the company's activities at all, and as much as he may want his name removed, there's a possible legal argument to be made that Mig Productions is not a brand of Mig Jimenez, but the company's own brand. Ammo by Mig is his new venture, which is the one he seemingly actively or personally manages.
