First Time Reading The Bible

Pick a book of the Bible and work your way through it. If you read one chapter of John a day, (which will take no more than 5-10 minutes) you'll read John in its entirety in 21 days. After reading John, move on to the other gospels – Matthew, Mark or Luke. Next read Philipians, Ephesians and Colossians,...

It is very common for people who decide to read the Bible for the first time to do the logical thing: start at the beginning and read to the end -- just like they would read most other books. However, the typical experience of reading the Bible this way usually results in the following: no problem reading

How to successfully read the Bible for the first time

Personally, I'd probably the following as the best order to read the Bible for the first time (for ease of reading ONLY): Genesis and Exodus first. Matthew – John. Acts. Romans – Jude. Psalms – Proverbs. Joshua – Job, Isaiah – Malachi. Leviticus – Deuteronomy.
